ESSEX INSTITUTE
Historical Collections

VOL. CI — 1965

ISSUED QUARTERLY BY THE ESSEX INSTITUTE
Salem, Massachusetts

Salem, Mass.
Newcomb & Gauss Co., Printers
1965

TABLE OF CONTENTS FOR VOLUME CI

JANUARY 1965

"A Contrary Wind At Sea and Contrary Times at Home"—The Sea Logs of Francis Boardman
By John Cary 3

The "Salem Secession" of Agassiz Zoologists
By Ralph W. Dexter 27

Daniel Rogers, Ipswich Goldsmith (The Case of the Double Identity)
By Martha Gandy Fales 40

"The Backon On Backer's"
By M. V. Brewington 50

Politics or Principle? Rufus King and the Opposition to Slavery, 1785-1825
By Joseph L. Arbena 56

Captain William Pickering's Journal, 1709 78

APRIL 1965

American Trade With South Africa
By Alan R. Booth 83

General Glover Battles A "Temporal Curse"
By Russell W. Knight 116

A Yankee Schoolmistress Discovers Virginia
By Bessie M. Henry 121

Old Patterns in the New World: The Distribution of Land in 17th Century Andover
By Philip J. Greven, Jr. 133

Paper Money in Colonial Massachusetts
By Herman Belz 149

JULY 1965

Essex County Furniture—Documented Treasures From Local Collections, 1660-1860
By Dean A. Fales, Jr. 165

Annual Report 1964-1965

OCTOBER 1965

Edmund Currier, Clockmaker
By David R. Proper 281

American Merchants In South Africa, 1832-1870
By Alan R. Booth 289

Joseph Story: The Salem Years
By Gerald T. Dunne 307

Victory In The West: A Study of the Role of Timothy Pickering In the Successful Consummation of Pinckney's Treaty
By Gerard H. Clarfield 333

Index to Volume CI 354